President's Message

By Jim Goins

With the election of officers for 2009, it appears that we have a good group to carry on the momentum. If you wish to participate in any of the standing committees or volunteer to help during the meetings, please talk with Tim Strong, incoming President.

Congratulations to several of our members (Robin Rebeck, Kurt Allebach and Dawn Nichols) who have received recognition for their images being accepted for the Caladesi/Honeymoon Photo Contest. The images will appear on the 2009 Calendar.

There are many PSA Exhibitions that can be entered. Check the back section of the PSA Journal. Slides are still accepted in some of the exhibits.

Please let me know if you have a suggestion for my final President's Shoot during the month of November. Saturday, Nov. 15th, is a PSA scheduled shoot.

Some good news! Received a letter from the Safety Harbor Library acknowledging our recent contribution and stating that they anticipate having the grand opening by April 2009.

DUES ARE DUE! CONTACT DAWN REID TO PAY.

Dec., Jan. dates flip-flopped, locations changed

As in past years, the club schedule has been modified for December and January. See Calendar at right.

This is to ensure that the December evaluations can be entered in the year-end competition on Jan. 20.

Member photos for Yearbook needed

The 2009 club Yearbook will feature a picture of each member. Please send a small "head shot" to Jim Goins so that he may include it next to your name. Sizes need not be large: 600–800KB will be plenty big enough for Jim to work on. Jim will make all the adjustments needed, so just send him a nice color photo. His e-mail is goinsrep@tampabay.rr.com.

Mini-Essays, pot luck scheduled for Dec. 16 meeting

The Dec. 16 Program Night will feature "Mini-Essays." All members can enter a mini-essay. The presentation should last between three and five minutes. Participants each receive 10 points for their efforts. Contact Jim Goins for details. A pot-luck dinner is part of this annual event.
