President's Message

By Jo-Ann Devine

Without our many members that donate their time and skills each month, we would not have the great organization we call the Suncoast Camera Club.

One way to get our club known by the public is to take our love for photography into the community. Mary Burke has volunteered to manage our club-sponsored High School Photo Contest the past few years. This is a great opportunity for young people to be competitive and show their talent in the photographic arts.

Erik Rosengren has a great idea. There are many persons in retirement homes and nursing facilities that could use a little sunshine in their lives. Erik said it would be nice to take those photos we keep storing "under the bed" to some of the local rehab, nursing, and retirement homes. Phyllis Carlson donated one of her photographs this month. You may need to talk to the facility administrator for permission to do this. The prints will need to be framed. Remember, it's worth it just to get one little smile from some of our less fortunate community members.

Happy Spring and happy shooting!

Suncoast Virtual Exhibition accepting entries

The 2012 Suncoast Virtual EID International Exhibition is now ready for entries. There are two sections: General and Creative. You may enter four images in each section. The closing date is April 18, 2012. The cost for entering one or both sections is $8 for Suncoast Camera Club members. By entering, you will be supporting your club.

Here is the link to the Suncoast Virtual page for more information: www.photographybuynick.com/page4c.htm

Former member's works on exhibit

Former member Joe Constantino is part of an exhibit at the Leepa-Rattner Museum in Tarpon Springs entitled "Telling Stories: Prints from the Collection." Joe has a number of prints in the permanent collection of the museum and five of them are being exhibited. Joe's prints are in the Works on Paper area. The prints being exhibited as "Nature Abstracts (Faces in the Wood)."

The Leepa-Rattner Museum is located on Klosterman Road between routes 19 and 19-A. The museum is closed on Mondays. Sunday hours are from 1 to 5 (admission is free on Sunday). The museum's Web page is: <http://www.spcollege.edu/central/museum>
