NEWS RELEASE

Suncoast Camera Club Members Receive PSA Awards

Two Suncoast Camera Club members were the recipients of special awards at the Photographic Society of America (PSA) International Conference, held in Charleston, SC (Oct. 3-9, 2010).

Frank Crommelin was awarded the Proficiency PSA (PPSA) Distinction at the PSA Annual Membership Meeting at the Charleston Conference. Distinction Awards are in recognition of photographic achievement, based on acceptance records in PSA recognized International Exhibitions and documented with PSA Division approved Star Rating Certificates. The Distinction Award includes an invitation to display a sample of work on the Society's web site, Gallery of Distinction Awards.

Erik Rosengren, PPSA, received Associate (APSA) Honors at the Photographic Society of America (PSA) Honors Banquet in Charleston on October 9, 2010. PSA bestows APSA Honors on an outstanding member who has been proposed by a PSA member, endorsed for the Honor by two PSA members, and received a majority vote by the PSA Honors Committee. A candidate for APSA Honors must have been a PSA member for at least 6 years and must have demonstrated not only photographic achievement and proficiency, but must have contributed significant service to PSA and photography in general. Erik received the PPSA Distinction in 2007.

PSA is a worldwide, interactive organization for serious amateur and professional photographers or for anyone who loves photography. PSA invites the Suncoast Camera Club members, family, and friends, to visit the PSA web site at www.psa-photo.org to view the Gallery of Distinction Awards and for more information about PSA, its activities, benefits, and membership opportunities. Several new PSA individual member discounts and exclusive services are available to PSA members.

Congratulations to Frank Crommelin, PPSA and Erik Rosengren, APSA, PPSA on their achievements.
